

Oliver Miller Homestead

PART of the ALLEGHENY COUNTY PARKS SYSTEM

2018 Special Events

- May 20..... Fiber, Fabric and Fashion
18th century cloth explained, the dying process demonstrated. 18th century fashion show (men and women) at 3:00 PM.
- June 3..... An 18th Century Wedding
Featuring the 1787 wedding of young Mary Miller and the shift wedding of an older widow. Music of the time.
- July 1..... Patriots, Then and Now
Recalling Miller Rev. War service. Honoring today's vets. Declaration of Ind. at 2:30PM. A visit from Geo. Washington!
- July 15..... Whiskey Rebellion Day
The historic event is reviewed & Miller involvement discussed through the aid of three skits starting at 2:30 PM.
- Look for MAKE A CRAFT DAYS in August.
- September 8 (4-7:30PM) & 9 (1:30-4:30PM) Frontier Militia Encampment
The local 18th century militia - men who were expected to protect the frontier - will be encamped on the grounds.
- October 21..... Children's Harvest Festival
Children can try their hands at tin punch, corn crafts, doll making, butter churning, bobbing for apples, sack racing & more.
- November 4 (4:30-7:30 PM)..... Twilight at Mansfield
The only day when you can see the Homestead illuminated by candlelight and cressets. Warm cider and cookies available.
- November 18..... Giving Thanks on the Frontier
The Miller family and their friends give thanks while a feast is prepared at the open hearth and bake oven.
- December 2 Hogmanay & Scottish Dancing
This Scottish New Year's celebration shoos out the old and welcomes the new. Join the Scottish dancers in the barn.

The Oliver Miller Homestead is a Pioneer Landmark and Whiskey Rebellion Site

Self-guided tours. Guides in 18th century dress provide information, demonstrate pioneer crafts, and discuss the history of the Miller family and the area. The Homestead site includes the original Stone House and Spring House, a reconstructed log house, forge, demonstration shed, barn and various gardens.

ADMISSION: $2 / person on event days. $1 / person on non-event Sundays
Located in Allegheny County's South Park, 1 Stone Manse Drive, 15129

The Homestead is open every Sunday afternoon from May 20 to Dec. 2
1:30 to 4:30 PM (Last Admission at 4:00 PM)

olivermillerhomestead.org ☎ 412-835-1554 ☎ find us on Facebook